

“Andrew has helped me improve my revenue and margin, my management team, my sales team and my channel. Andrew is more than a trainer / consultant - Andrew is a way of life!”

VP Global Sales Hewlett Packard.

Andrew Lees

Location: United Kingdom.

Languages: English.

All the expertise: Coach, Facilitator, Trainer.

My best story

“When interviewing a Thoracic Surgeon in a medical conference in front of 2200 people, I realised, not only did I not understand the next question, I couldn’t even pronounce many of the words...”

Overview

Andrew has thirty years’ experience in the field of learning, development and education in both the public and private sector. He has been involved in designing, developing and running both change and leadership development programmes for senior managers in many blue chip companies. He has worked with many High Performance teams, many of them world class.

Areas of Expertise

The management of change in strategic, organisational and personal setting • Executive coach with SVPs, VPs, MDs and Directors • Trained by Sir John Whitmore in GROW • Personal and team development • Communication and presentation skills

Licence to Practice

A keen rally driver who recently won the UK Endurance Championship and a qualified Rugby Coach, Andrew was Learning and Development Manager at Dell Computers and Group Development Manager for Bayer PLC.

- MSc in Management Development (Salford)
- Post Grad Diploma in Manager Development (Roffey Park)
- Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development
- NLP Practitioner Certificate
- MBTI and DISC trained and certified
- BELBIN and Team Roles accreditation

Satisfied clients, include

Informatica, COLT Telecoms, Hitachi Data Systems in Africa and Europe, Maquet UK, Getting Group, McClaren F1, Novartis, The British Standards Institution.

Three words that describe me

Passion | Energy | Futures