

“The course was, to quote my American colleagues,
-Awesome!- A gentle approach, covering a huge amount of ground. Best course ever.”

Chloe at Oasis School of Human Relations, UK.

Corinna Powlesland

Location: United Kingdom.

Languages: English.

All the expertise: Coach, Facilitator.

My best story

“It’s midnight, July 1995, Dukes of York’s Theatre, West End, London and Robbie Williams is standing next to me wearing gold latex pants...”

Overview

Corinna is a highly experienced coach and facilitator with a background as a professional actor. For the past 17 years she has worked as an international coach and facilitator in a variety of key areas. A communication expert, Corinna has a particular passion for the use of drama process in personal development. Her style is bold, kind, spirited and immersive.

Areas of Expertise

- Coaching
- Leadership development and communication
- Influencing skills
- Social intelligence
- Difficult conversations
- Presentations
- Management development
- Public speaking
- Applied improvisation
- Personal impact and personal development

Licence to Practice

With an acting career that spans 25 years and includes London’s West End, the National Theatre, Regional Theatre and BBC television, Corinna’s variety of experience in performing, coaching and business underpins her work. She is currently a Designer and Coach/Facilitator with The Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD), focusing on The Art of Presenting and The Art of Influencing.

- Diploma in Acting, The Guildford School of Acting and LAMDA

Satisfied clients, include

Credit Suisse, Citigroup, Barclays, Goldman Sachs, Fortis International, GCHQ, HMGCC, Chanel, BskyB, Channel 4, Universal Music, Clore Fellowship, Christies International, Warner Brothers, FTI Consulting, Turner Broadcasting, Diageo, Novartis, UK Sport, Bupa, BA, CGGVeritas International, Deloitte, Rolls Royce, CIPD and Capstone International.

Three words that describe me

Passionate | Joyful | Challenging