My best story

“After three days in front of people that I hadn’t previously known, I was confident I was on the right path for a rewarding and fulfilling future. I just had to wait for the verdict, from them...”

Overview

Ex-Royal Air Force, with over 15 years’ business coaching experience across various industries, Darren works on a global stage delivering programmes that help directors through to front end sales staff manage change, improve or enhance current performance.

Areas of Expertise

Executive coaching • Performance management • Change management • Leadership development

Licence to Practice

Darren’s career is diverse and it is this experience that informs his approach. First as a physical training Instructor in the Royal Air Force where he managed a variety of coaching situations to improve personal and professional performance. Next establishing himself in the Health and Fitness Industry as a successful personal trainer, coach and motivator for a range of professional individuals. Finally as a world class trainer and coach who continues his interest in sport and high performance. A semi-professional footballer, he also competes in triathlons and Ironman distance events. In 2014 he completed 3 marathons finishing the New York Marathon in a time of 3:53:54 – his personal best to date.
