

“Stewart’s unique style of coaching has made an enormous difference to our day-to-day performance. Greater satisfaction in the team and better results for the client too.”

Debbie Hilton, Head of Employment Services, Crisis UK

Stewart Lane

Location: United Kingdom.

Languages: English.

All the expertise: Coach, Facilitator, Trainer, Speaker.

My best story

“It took 30 years for my song to become a number one hit, and no-one could have been more surprised than me - but when you’ve almost given up because you think nothing is happening, something is happening...”

Overview

With over fifteen years experience working with visionary entrepreneurs, creatives and leaders, Stewart’s specialism is in applying breakthrough discoveries in modern science, such as neuropsychology and field theory, to the areas of performance, motivation, leadership, communication and business growth.

Areas of Expertise

- Executive coaching
- Keynote speaker
- Performance management
- Leadership development
- Communication skills
- Project management
- Idea creation

Licence to Practice

Previously worked as a professional composer, singer/songwriter and cellist touring with his own group, BAL, as well as composing for film, theatre and various ensembles.

- Diploma in Performance Coaching, Newcastle University.

Satisfied clients, include

The Prince’s Trust, KMPT, Marks & Spencers, TDA (Training & Development Agency), NCSL (National College of School Leadership), various London Boroughs (Brent, Hackney, Lambeth, Southwark, Tower Hamlets) London Connexions, Customs & Excise, Honda and British Telecom.

Three words that describe me

Inspiring | Insightful | Clear